

Time at home has been so nice without all of the telephone solicitation calls. Some days we would get as many as 2 or 3 calls a day. Since I have caller ID, there would be times I didn't answer the calls, when I didn't I would get as many as 8 to 10 calls in a day. These calls would usually be from 1 or 2 salesman. I consider these type of calls harassment and they should not be tolerated.
